

Take a step back to gentler times as we see the sights and events of Adelaide from 1938 to 1954. This combination of two documentary films and live performance features rare footage and images of great Australians including Sir Donald Bradman, Graham Kennedy, Lew Hoad and more. Narrated and playfully hosted by magician Jethro Heller, and featuring the old style comedy of 81 year old comic Max Fowler, This show will transport you back to a time when there was no internet, just good old fashioned family entertainment.
